

About The Crowne Plaza Athens

The Crowne Plaza Athens City Centre lies in a pleasant mixed commercial and residential neighborhood right on the edge of Downtown Athens, within walking distance to upscale shopping areas, vibrant nightlife, trendy cafes, fine restaurants, cozy pubs, sophisticated museums and historic monuments.

It is a first-class property with above average facilities, from the gourmet Ambrosia restaurant to the stunning rooftop. The hotel also features a convenient gym within its premises, a business centre in the lobby and over a dozen banquet and conference rooms. This is a high-tech property with useful features such as a media hub under the flat-screen satellite TV in every room, speakers in the bathrooms, hotel-wide wireless printing, discrete cutting-edge security installations and cordless telephones in all rooms.

The hotel is proud of its world-class Crowne Plaza standards. It presents a vibrant mix between colorful local elements and luxury international standards, practicing an eco-friendly philosophy that promotes sustainability.

So, if you still haven't decided which of the luxury hotels in Athens is the one for you, simply visit the Crowne Plaza Athens City Centre website and take an internet tour of the premises. One visit will convince you that the Crowne Plaza Athens City Centre is the luxury hotel that will surpass your expectations both in terms of service and accommodation in Athens Greece.
