

Afternoon Colloquium

Prospects for an Expanded South Corridor

March 5, 2018,

Athens University History Museum (5 Tholou St., Plaka)

This event is organized by IENE in cooperation with the Energy and Climate Change Policy Centre (KEPA) of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

Event Programme

16:30-17:00 Registration – Coffee

17:00-18:30 Part I

- Opening Remarks by the Organisers:
 - Prof. Dimitris Mavrakis, Director, KEPA
 - Mr. John Chadjivassiliades, Chairman, IENE
- Opening Statement by Mr. Michalis Verroioopoulos, Secretary General for Energy and Mineral Resources, Ministry of Environment and Energy
- Mr. John Roberts, Energy Security Specialist, Methinks Ltd, Scotland and Senior Fellow, Atlantic Council, Washington DC
- Introduction to the Expanded South Corridor Concept by Mr. Costis Stambolis, Executive Director IENE
- LNG as part of the Expanded South Corridor by Mr. Dimitris Mezartasoglou, Head of Research, IENE

Q & A

18:30-19:30 Part II

Panel Discussion to be led by John Roberts with the participation of

- Mr. Spiros Paleoyannis, Managing Director, Medgas and More Ltd., Member of BoD, IENE
- Mr. Dimitris Manolis, Director of International Affairs, Public Gas Corporation (DEPA)
- Dr. Marika Karagianni, Caspian Energy Expert, Dpt. Of Black Sea Countries, Democritus University of Thrace

19:30-20:30 Cocktail Reception

19:30-20:00 Guided Tour of the Athens University History Museum

